

Threads That Bind

May News

Are you a Lucky Duck? Come in June 1—4th and we will find out!

Free Prizes,
Discounts and Lots of fun!

We are getting ready for the festival of sail! Make sure you check out the largest rubber duck in the world, and come in to the shop to see if you are a Lucky Duck, too!

Aren't these the prettiest Sunflowers? We also have a cute coordinating fabric with bees on it!

And wouldn't this flag be perfect for Memorial Day weekend? Free instructions available with purchase!

Make sure to like our facebook page to see more of what's new in the shop - <https://www.facebook.com/>

Important dates for May and June

May 27 and 28 is the 34th Annual Azalea quilt show by the Azalea Quilters Guild. Located at the Kalmiopsis school, hours are 10 –5 on Saturday and 10 – 4 on Sunday.

June 21 is the Start of the 2017 Row by Row Experience! We have a super cute Row for this year, plus will have the pattern for 2015 available for sale. Make sure you stop by and pick up your pattern!

New in the shop:

Gradations Quilt - Kit Available!

Big Block Quilt - Kit available!

120 Central
Coos Bay, OR 97420

(541)267-0749
ThreadsThatBind@frontier.com

We're on the web!
Threadsthatbindcoosbay.com

New ruler and patterns by Karla Alexander. You will Receive a free pattern with Purchase of ruler

Simplish - We have kits available for this fun
kit by Wilimington Fabrics

We are increasing our stock of rulers by Creative Grids . You can receive a free pattern with the purchase of any of these rulers !

Farmer's Market Every Wednesday

Every Wednesday from now through October you will find the Farmer's Market right outside our front door! Make sure you stop by and enjoy fresh produce and handmade merchandise from our local vendors and take a look to see what's new in the shop! Parking can be limited, but we enjoy the activity and hope you will as well.

